Are you a UCD graduate student?

Yes → Are you required to complete English instruction this quarter?

Yes → Are you taking any other English instruction this quarter (e.g. UWP 391)?

No → You must participate in at least two of these options.

No → Are you required to complete English instruction this quarter?

No → Choose the option(s) that you are interested in.

Yes → Choose the option(s) that you are interested in.

No → Please contact us at iae@ucdavis.edu to discuss your options.

Are you a UCD visiting scholar or post-doc?

Yes → You can participate in Tracks 2 or 3.

Choose the option(s) that you are interested in.

No → Choose the option(s) that you are interested in.

1. Students in the professional schools (e.g. law, management, etc.) may not be able to register for courses on the main campus and should speak with an advisor from their school for information on participation.

2. Students are required to complete English instruction if they (a) are working as a TA or AI and hold a conditional pass on the TOEP, or (b) are planning to retake the TOEP.

Language & Culture Coaching

Track 1: One-on-One Coaching
Meet weekly with an undergraduate coach to practice oral communication. Set goals with your coach and work toward meeting your goals with your coach.

Track 2: Presentation Skills
Practice your presentation skills in one-on-one sessions with an instructor and group sessions with other students. Learn how to organize presentations and use your voice effectively.

Track 3: TA Communication
Practice using English for teaching in one-on-one sessions with an instructor and group sessions with other students. Learn how to teach basic concepts, check for student understanding, and handle student questions.

Track 4: Pronunciation Practice (Starting Fall 2020)
Complete a diagnostic to identify target areas for practice. Practice pronunciation through online modules and attend regular one-on-one feedback sessions with an instructor.